Public, through its relationship with Open to the Public Investing Inc. and their parent company Public Holdings, Inc, email addresses collected by both Public Innovation LLC and Open to the Public Investing Inc. may be shared amongst affiliated entities and used for distribution of additional product and service offerings that benefit Public clients.

Public allows its clients to have others 'follow' their trade activity. Clients have the option to allow their transactions to be seen on the application by other clients who have followed the specific user. Public does not recommend or endorse these shared transactions. Clients are free to disclose or not disclose to their followers their trading information at their own discretion. All clients assume all risk in their trades done via the application.

The 'Comments' feature included within the Public platform is intended to provide Users with the ability to interact via chat with other Users directly within the App. Due to the interactive nature of comments posting, Public is unable to assume responsibility for any comments made on the platform. Public does not endorse any User comments made within the App and any comment should be independently vetted by the end User for accuracy, timeliness and authenticity. You acknowledge that you will evaluate and bear any risks related to your use of any Comment, including any reliance on the accuracy, completeness or usefulness of such Comment. This is inclusive of any ideas, suggestions, opinions, comments and observations made by users as well as any text, data files, video, music, sound, voice recordings or other material posted. Public reserves the right to disable the ability to comment for specific users at its sole discretion. Public reserves the right to delete comments that do not meet community guidelines, which are defined at its sole discretion. Generally, these relate to comments that are threatening, abusive, misleading, an impersonation of someone else or otherwise questionable as determined by Public at its sole discretion.

By using the comments feature you agree to provide true, accurate, current and complete information about yourself and not make any false representations or misleading claims either generally or in regards to any specific security on the platform. Any comment or grouping of comments deemed to be misleading, an attempt to cause movement in a stock price, or a general falsehood regarding a security or the markets at large may lead to a restriction, closure or a potential escalation to enforcement authorities depending on the severity of the case. Your comments may be available for all other users to view and download. By posting a Comment on the Public platform, you hereby grant Public a worldwide, irrevocable, non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, sub licensable and transferable right and license to use, reproduce, distribute, prepare derivative works of, display and perform the Comments in connection with Public business, including without limitation for promoting and redistributing part or all of the Public Website and App.

A securities inclusion within a User comment and User comments made in association with any trade or security does not represent a solicitation or recommendation to buy the security by Public. There are many factors that you must consider when making an investment decision, including, but not limited to, product features, risks, whether or not an investment meets your investment objectives, risk tolerance and other personalized factors. Please remember that past performance may not be indicative of future results. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk, and there can be no assurance that the future performance of any specific investment, investment strategy, or product referenced to directly or indirectly in any Comments, will be profitable or be suitable for you.
